Lieutenant-Governor.

CANADA:

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

ELIZABETH the SECOND, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom, Canada and Her other Realms and Territories, Queen, Head of the Commonwealth, Defender of the Faith.

To all to whom these presents shall come—Greeting.

Ray Williston,
Minister of Lands,
Forests, and

incorporate a tract of land and the owners thereof into an improvement district:

And whereas the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has, by Order in Council made pursuant to the said Act, been pleased to

WHEREAS by section 53 of the Water Act it is provided that the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may order that the tract of land hereinafter described and the owners thereof be incorporated into an improvement district under the said Act, and has made further provision to the tenor and effect hereinafter appearing:

Now know ye that by these presents We do hereby order and proclaim:—

1. The tract of land within Cowichan Land District and Victoria Land Registration District more particularly described as Lots 1 to 24, inclusive, Plan 16652; Lots 1 to 37, inclusive, Plan 17161, all the aforementioned being within Lot 1, North Saltspring Island, together with all adjacent road allowances, and all subdivisions thereof and all owners of land therein are incorporated into an improvement district under the Water Act and subject to the provisions thereof and to the conditions hereinafter contained.

2. The improvement district shall be known as "Scott Point Waterworks District."

3. The objects of the improvement district shall be the acquisition, maintenance, and operation of works for waterworks purpose and all matters incidental thereto.

4. There shall be three Trustees of the improvement district.

5. The persons qualified to vote at the first election of Trustees shall be Canadian citizens who are twenty-one years of age or older and are entitled to be registered as voters under the Provincial Elections Act and are owners of land in the tract of land hereinbefore described, and the persons qualified to be candidates at the election shall be the persons qualified as aforesaid to vote and their wives and husbands.

6. Mrs. Jean Vodden, R.R. 2, Ganges, B.C., shall be Returning Officer for the first election of Trustees. She shall call a general meeting of the persons who are qualified as aforesaid to vote and shall, at least fourteen days before the date of the meeting, post at three conspicuous places within the area hereinbefore described and publish in a newspaper circulating in the area a notice signed by her giving the date, time, and place of holding the meeting. The Returning Officer shall be chairman of the meeting, and subject to the provisions of clause 5 shall have power to determine whether or not any person who desires to vote is qualified to do so. She shall have power to determine the procedure to be followed at the meeting and the method of taking the votes. Each qualified voter shall be entitled to cast one vote for each of three candidates. The Returning Officer shall declare the result of the election and shall notify the Comptroller of Water Rights of the said result.

7. The candidate elected as Trustee for whom the greatest number of votes is cast at the general meeting called pursuant to clause 6 hereof shall hold office until the annual general meeting of 1970, the candidate elected for whom the second greatest number of votes is cast shall hold office until the annual general meeting of 1969, and the candidate elected for whom the third greatest number of votes is cast shall hold office until the annual general meeting of 1968, but should there be nominated no more than three candidates for office of Trustee, or should any two or more candidates receive an equal number of votes, then the Returning Officer shall have power to and shall declare which of the candidates are elected and which shall hold office until the next, the second, and the third succeeding annual general meetings respectively.

8. All subsequent elections of Trustees shall be held at the annual general meetings of the improvement district, and it shall be the duty of the Trustees to call a general meeting to be held between January 1st and May 1st in each year, except 1967, for the following purposes:—

- To receive from the Trustees a report on condition of the works and a statement of the financial condition of the improvement district;
- To discuss with the Trustees any matter relating to the works or finances of the improvement district;
- To fix the remuneration of the Trustees for the ensuing year;
- To elect a Trustee to succeed the one whose term of office expires coincident with the holding of such annual general meeting, and to elect a Trustee or Trustees to fill any other vacancy or vacancies that has or have occurred or is or are about to occur among the Trustees;
- To choose the auditor for the ensuing year.

A special general meeting may be called by the Trustees at any time for the purpose of electing a Trustee or Trustees to fill any vacancy or vacancies among the Trustees, or for the purpose of discussing with the owners any matter or matters which in the opinion of the Trustees should be brought up at a general meeting.

At least fourteen days' notice of every general meeting shall be given by notices posted at three conspicuous places within the district and published in a newspaper circulating therein.

The secretary shall enter in a book provided by the Trustees for this purpose minutes of all matters brought before the meeting and the action taken thereon. At any general meeting every person shall be qualified to vote who is a Canadian citizen and is twenty-one years old or older and is an owner of land in the improvement district, or the authorized agent of any board or corporation that is an owner of such land, or legal representative of any owner of such land who has died, become insolvent or insane, and is entitled to be registered as a voter under the Provincial Elections Act. Every person qualified as aforesaid to vote and the wife or husband of any such person shall be qualified to be a candidate for Trustee of the improvement district. In the event of the right of any person to vote at any general meeting being challenged, the chairman shall have authority to determine whether or not such person is entitled to vote, and the chairman may require such person to make and file with him a statutory declaration showing that the declarant is qualified as aforesaid to vote at such general meeting. Forthwith after the holding of a general meeting the Trustees shall file with the Comptroller of Water Rights a true copy of the minutes of such meeting and copies of all auditor's reports and financial statements presented or discussed at the meeting.

9. All words and phrases given special meaning in section 2 of the Water Act shall, where used herein, be ascribed the meaning given them in the said section, unless the context otherwise requires.

In testimony whereof, We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent and the Great Seal of Our said Province to be hereunto affixed.

Witness, Major-General the Honourable George Randolph Pearkes, V.C., P.C., C.B., D.S.O., M.C., C.D., Lieutenant-Governor of Our said Province, in Our City of Victoria, this seventeenth day of January, in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-seven, and in the fifteenth year of Our Reign.

By Command.

2. The improvement district shall be known as "Trout Lake Improvement District."

3. The objects of the improvement district shall be the acquisition, maintenance, and operation of works for waterworks purpose and all matters incidental thereto.

4. There shall be five Trustees of the improvement district.

5. The persons qualified to vote at the first election of Trustees shall be Canadian citizens who are twenty-one years of age or older and are entitled to be registered as voters under the Provincial Elections Act and are owners of land in the tract of land hereinbefore described, and the persons qualified to be candidates at the election shall be the persons qualified as aforesaid to vote and their wives and husbands.

6. Mr. Arthur Watson, Ferguson, B.C., shall be Returning Officer for the first election of Trustees. He shall call a general meeting of the persons who are qualified as aforesaid to vote and shall, at least fourteen days before the date of the meeting, send to each of the said persons by registered mail a notice signed by him giving the date, time, and place of holding the meeting. The Returning Officer shall be chairman of the meeting, and subject to the provisions of clause 5 shall have power to determine whether or not any person who desires to vote is qualified to do so. He shall have power to determine the procedure to be followed at the meeting and the method of taking the votes. Each qualified voter shall be entitled to cast one vote for each of five candidates. PRIVATE BILLSNOTICE

TAKE NOTICE that the Society of Industrial and Cost Accountants of British Columbia intends to petition the Legislative Assembly of the Province of British Columbia for the enactment of a Private Act to change the name of the Society to the "Society of Industrial Accountants of British Columbia" on a date to be fixed by the Lieutenant-Governor by his Proclamation.

Dated at Vancouver, B.C., this 11th day of January, 1967.

SOCIETY OF INDUSTRIAL AND COST ACCOUNTANTS OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

E. P. Graham Moseley,
Solicitor.

PRIVATE BILLSNOTICE

NOTICE is hereby given that an application will be made to the Legislative Assembly of the Province of British Columbia, at its next Session, on behalf of Yorkshire Savings and Loan Association for a Private Act to be entitled the Yorkshire Savings and Loan Association Enabling Act, 1967, to provide for the conversion of the said Yorkshire Savings and Loan Association (herein called the "Association") from an association under the Savings and Loan Associations Act into a company under the Companies Act (herein called the "Company"), and which Act will provide:—

1. That the Association may be so converted upon the passing of a conversion resolution by its shareholders entitled to vote, the sanctioning of the conversion resolution by its other shareholders, and the issuing by the Registrar of Companies of a certificate of conversion.

2. That the conversion resolution shall alter the constitution of the Association by adopting a memorandum and articles of association in form previously approved by the Registrar of Companies and shall provide for the execution thereof; shall specify the authorized and issued capital; shall specify the manner of exchanging issued guarantee shares of the Association for shares of the Company and of exchanging issued shares other than guarantee shares for investment contracts of the Company; shall specify the day, month, and year for the first annual general meeting of the Company subsequent to the conversion; and shall make such other provision as may be necessary or advisable.

3. For filing of the conversion resolution with the Registrar of Companies, the Inspector of Savings and Loan Associations, the Superintendent of Insurance, and the Superintendent of Brokers.

4. That the Registrar of Companies may issue a certificate of conversion if the Superintendent of Brokers, the Inspector of Savings and Loan Associations, and the Superintendent of Insurance approve of the conversion and of the provisions therefor and if there shall be furnished to the said Registrar his fees and such documents as he may require, whereupon the Companies Act and the substituted memorandum of association and articles of association adopted by the conversion resolution shall apply to the Company in the same manner as if it were a company incorporated under the Companies Act on the date of the issue of the certificate of conversion with that memorandum and those articles, and the Company shall have the same rights and power and be subject to the same duties, obligations, and restrictions as if it were so incorporated; the constitution and rules of the Association and the regulations of the Association shall cease to apply to the Association; notwithstanding the foregoing the corporate existence of the Association shall not terminate, but the Company shall be deemed to be a continuation of the entity of the Association so converted and all property of the Association is and shall continue to be the property of the Company, including all rights, titles, and interests in and to all property of whatever kind, whether real, personal, or mixed, and things in action, and every right, privilege, interest, and asset of any conceivable value or benefit and existing, or pertaining to it, or which would enure to it, shall immediately by operation of law and without any conveyance or transfer and without any further act or deed remain and be vested in and continue and be the property of the Company into which the Association has converted itself, and the Company shall have, hold, and enjoy the same in its own right as fully and to the same extent as the same was possessed, held, and enjoyed by the Association; all pending actions and other judicial proceedings to which the Association is a party, if any, shall be deemed not to have abated nor to have discontinued by reason of such conversion, but may be prosecuted to final judgment, order, or decree in the same manner as if such conversion into a company had not been made, and the Company may continue such action in its corporate name as a company under the Companies Act, and any judgment, order, or decree may be rendered for or against it which might have been rendered for or against the Association; the Company shall thereafter be recognized for all purposes as a company under the Companies Act and its existence, powers, duties, and obligations as a body corporate thereunder shall be given full credence by all courts and administrative tribunals and government agencies, whether Federal or Provincial, to the same extent as if the Company had been originally incorporated under the Companies Act; the Company shall have the authorized and the issued capital provided for in the conversion resolution, and such of the issued guarantee shares of the Association as are converted into an equivalent number of shares of the Company shall be deemed to have been validly issued and to be outstanding as shares of the Company of the kind or kinds and class or classes more particularly set forth in the conversion resolution, and there shall be treated as subscribed for and paid thereon an amount equal to the amount actually subscribed and paid to the Association in cash for such shares upon their original issue by the Association, and the holders of the guarantee shares shall be deemed to be the holders of such shares of the Company; the Company shall be deemed to have issued to the registered holders of shares other than guarantee shares of the Association, and such holders shall be deemed to have received in exchange and substitution for such shares and to be the holders of the investment contracts whose amounts and characteristics are more particularly set forth in the conversion resolution, and the Company and such holders respectively shall be deemed to be obligated and to have the rights in respect thereof to the same extent as if such investment contracts had been issued originally to such registered holders; the registered holders of shares other than guarantee shares of the Association shall be deemed to be the respective holders of such investment contracts which are to be issued in place of and in substitution for their shares other than guarantee shares.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY

PRIVATE BILLS

Excerpt from Standing Orders Relating to Private Bills

100. (1) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¼ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated January 5, 1949.

E. K. DEBECK,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

(b) To take part in the management, supervision, or control of the business or operations of any company or undertaking of which the Company holds any shares, bonds, debentures, or other securities, or of which the Company owns any property, assets, or rights, and for that purpose to appoint and remunerate any managers, accountants, or other experts or agents:

(c) To employ any individual, firm, or corporation to manage, in whole or in part, the affairs of the Company, and to employ experts to investigate and examine into the conditions, prospects, value, character, and circumstances of any business concern or undertaking, and generally of any assets, property, or rights:

(d) To acquire by purchase, lease, or otherwise, and to take over and (or) manage and carry on all or any of the businesses, undertakings, properties, franchises, goodwill, contracts, rights, powers, and privileges held, enjoyed, or carried on by any person, firm, or corporation, or by any business, the carrying-on of which will, in the opinion of the Company, promote the carrying-out of the undertakings of the Company, or any of them, or possessed of any property suitable for the objects of the Company as the Company may deem advisable, and, in particular, for shares, bonds, debentures, or other securities of the Company, and to let and sub-let any property, and to sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of the whole of or any part of the Company's business, property, and assets of any kind for such consideration as the Company may deem advisable, and in particular for shares, bonds, debentures, or other securities of any other company, and to undertake the liabilities of any such person, firm, or corporation:

(e) To buy, sell, exchange, lease, or otherwise deal in real estate and in movable property, and negotiate for the purchase, sale, exchange, or lease of real estate and movable property:

(f) To sell, mortgage, rent, exchange, or otherwise deal in real or personal property, leases, lands, buildings, or hereditaments, easements, interests in land, concessions, or other rights or privileges:

(g) To erect, alter, improve, repair, maintain, and manage buildings on any lands in which the Company may have any interest, and generally to carry on the business of a real-estate property and improvement company:

(h) To acquire land for building purposes, and lay out building lots, and to clear and improve the same in any manner, and to construct roads and ways of every description, and to purchase, lease, construct, or otherwise acquire, hold, and enjoy, and to manage, on properties owned or controlled by the Company, solely for water supply or for the furnishing of gas, electricity, power, light, heat, drainage or sewerage, and to carry on business incidental to any of the aforesaid purposes:

(i) To import, export, manufacture, buy, sell, and deal in all kinds of goods, wares, and merchandise:

(j) To furnish and provide deposits and funds required in relation to any tender or application for any contract, concession, decree, enactment, property, privilege, or in relation to the carrying-out of any contract, concession, decree, or enactment:

(k) To accumulate capital for any of the purposes of the Company, and to appropriate any of the Company's assets to specific purposes, either conditionally or unconditionally, and to admit any class or section of those who have any dealings with the Company to any share in the profits thereof, or in the profits of any particular branch of the Company's business, or to any other special rights, privileges, advantages, or benefits:

(l) To borrow or raise money on and to mortgage or charge the lands, property, or rights of the Company, or any part thereof, as may be necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company, either to individual persons or companies, with power to accept shares or debentures in other companies, and (in case of shares) either wholly or partly paid up, as consideration for the above, and to hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of such debentures and shares as may be deemed most expedient; to promote or assist in promoting any company or companies, joint-stock companies for the purpose of taking over, acquiring, or working any property and liabilities of the Company, or for any other purposes which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit the Company; to take or otherwise acquire, and hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit the Company:

(m) To loan money upon the security of any and all kinds and descriptions of real and personal property, wheresoever situated, and, particularly, but without affecting the generality of the foregoing, mortgages (whether first or subsequent), and agreements for sale of either real or personal property, stocks, shares, debenture stocks and bonds, debentures, bonds, charter-parties, bills of lading, deposit receipts, contracts, warrants, and any other negotiable or transferable interest document, or security:

(n) To purchase or otherwise acquire, hold, discount, sell, lend money on the security of, or otherwise deal with mortgages, agreements for sale, promissory notes, lien notes, conditional sales agreements, chattel mortgages, and other securities:

(o) Generally to do all such things as may appear to be incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, or any of them.

The objects of the Society are:—

(a) To establish, maintain, and regulate the Northern B.C. Real Estate Board;

(b) To do all things necessary to promote interest in the marketing of real estate in all its aspects, and to advance and improve the relations of the members of the Society with the public;

(c) To advance and promote the interests of those engaged in the real-estate business as brokers, agents, salesmen, valuators, appraisers, examiners and experts, and to increase public confidence in and respect for those engaged in the calling of the real-estate agent:

(d) To encourage the use of the designation "realtor" by the members of the Society and to encourage and promote the acceptance by the general public of such designation and such use thereof, and to protect, as far as practical, the exclusive use thereof by the members of this Society and other societies and organizations, members of the Canadian Association of Real Estate Boards:

(e) To encourage the study of real estate in all its aspects and to promote the exchange of views between the members of the Society by affording opportunities for discussion, correspondence, and attendance at lectures for the presentation of papers, and to disseminate useful information by circulation among the members of publications, data, and forms:

(f) To institute, promote, and manage, and maintain systems and plans for the listing and sale of real estate with the object of rendering the best possible service to the general public for the purchase and sale of real estate through the members of the Society by providing vendors of real estate with a wide potential market and by providing purchasers of real estate with a wide selection of properties:

(g) To institute, promote, and manage plans or systems for the general benefit of the members of the Society in the conduct of their business connected with all aspects of real estate:

(h) To purchase, lease, build, or otherwise acquire, or provide from time to time and at any time any building or buildings or space for the purpose of an institute, hall, college or lecture rooms, offices and board rooms, and to alter, reconstruct, equip, and furnish the same for the promotion of the objects of the Society, and to sell, mortgage, lease, or otherwise dispose of the same when deemed advisable from time to time:

(i) To promote, encourage, and protect the ownership of real property, and to endeavour to maintain real-estate values in the areas served by the Society, and to do all things which may be deemed necessary or advisable to make real estate a sound and desirable investment:

(j) To assist in the development of the area served by the board in the manner best calculated to promote the prosperity and wealth of the area and its inhabitants:

(k) To advance the interests of the area served by the Board and its citizens by the collection and circulation of valuable and useful information pertaining to real estate, manufacturing, industrial, mercantile, and agricultural interests, and to oppose the enactment of laws detrimental to the said interests:

(l) To oppose the enactment of laws detrimental to real-estate interests:

(m) To foster an equitable system of taxation and assessment and to secure the enactment and enforcement of laws and ordinances for the further protection, convenience, and welfare of real-estate owners, leaseholders, and those engaged in all aspects of the real-estate business:

(n) To aid in the adjustment and settlement of any controversies or misunderstandings which may arise between members of the Society:

(o) To secure the adoption and enforcement of sound rules of business conduct and dealing among those engaged in the real-estate business:

(p) To adopt a code of ethics and standards of business conduct to which all members shall be required to conform:

(q) To establish, raise, undertake, superintend, manage, or administer charitable or benevolent funds to assist needy members of the Society and the dependents of deceased members or other deserving persons, and from time to time to make grants and donations out of the income or surplus funds of the Society for the purpose of such charitable or benevolent funds:

(r) To make grants and donations out of income or surplus funds of the Society for the establishment or support of any educational, charitable, or benevolent institution, and subscribe and guarantee funds for any educational, charitable, or benevolent purpose whether or not related to or calculated to promote the purposes of this Society:

(s) To maintain an active and representative membership composed of those engaged in any and all aspects of the real-estate business in areas served by the Board:

(t) To collect and make available to the members of the Board information regarding all aspects of the real-estate business in the areas served by the Board; such information to consist of traffic counts, sales statistics, rental statistics, indicating the state of the rental market in the various classes of rental properties, listing undesirable tenants, and such other pertinent and useful information as will be valuable to the membership of the Board in the conduct of its business:

(u) To make a distribution upon a winding-up of the Society to any charitable, educational, or benevolent corporation or corporations as may be designated by resolution in general meeting, as no member of the Society has any right to or interest in any distributive share of the assets or property of the Society; provided that any such body corporate must qualify as a tax-exempt body as defined in the Canadian Income Tax Act in force at the time of such distribution; this subsection shall not be altered nor amended.

MISCELLANEOUS

COMPANIES ACT

No. 67597.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that Western Standard Silver Mines (1966) Ltd. (Non-Personal Liability), which was incorporated under that name on the 3rd day of January, 1966, has this day converted itself, under sections 69 and 71 of the Companies Act, from a specially limited public company into a limited private company, and that, pursuant to section 48 of the said Act, the Company has this day changed its name to the name "Pine Buffalo Mines Ltd."

The objects of the Company now are:—

(a) To acquire by purchase, lease, hire, discovery, location, or otherwise, and hold, mines, mineral claims, mineral leases, mining lands, prospects, licences, and mining rights of every description, and to work, develop, operate, turn to account, sell, or otherwise dispose thereof:

(b) To dig, drill, or bore for, raise, crush, wash, smelt, reduce, refine, amalgamate, assay, analyze, and otherwise treat gold, silver, copper, lead, iron, coal, petroleum, natural gas, and any other ore, deposit, metal, or mineral whatsoever, whether belonging to the Company or not, and to render the same merchantable, and to buy, sell, and deal in the same or any product thereof:

(c) To engage in any branch of mining, smelting, milling, and refining minerals:

(d) To acquire by purchase, lease, hire, exchange, or otherwise, timber lands, leases, or claims, rights to cut timber, surface rights, and rights-of-way, water rights and privileges, patents, patent rights and concessions, and other real and personal property:

(e) To acquire by purchase, lease, hire, exchange, or otherwise, and to construct, operate, maintain, or alter, trails, roads, ways, tramways, reservoirs, dams, flumes, race and other ways, watercourses, canals, aqueducts, pipe-lines, wells, tanks, bridges, wharves, piers, mills, pumping plants, factories, foundries, furnaces, coke-ovens, crushing-works, smelting-works, concentrating-works, refining-works, hydraulic, electrical, and other works and appliances, power devices and plants of every kind, laboratories, warehouses, boarding-houses, dwellings, buildings, machinery, plant, and other works and conveniences, and to buy, sell, manufacture, and deal in all kinds of goods, stores, provisions, implements, chattels, and effects:

(f) To build, purchase, lease, hire, charter, navigate, use, and operate cars, wagons, and other vehicles, boats, ships, and other vessels:

(g) To sell or otherwise dispose of ore, metal, oil, gas, or mineral product, and to take contracts for mining work of all kinds, and to accept as the consideration shares, stock, debentures, or other securities of any limited company, wheresoever incorporated and carrying on any business, directly or indirectly, conducive to the objects of a specially limited company, if such shares (except the shares of a company having non-personal liability), stock, debentures, or other securities are fully paid up, and to sell or otherwise dispose thereof:

(h) To acquire by purchase, lease, or otherwise, and to take over and (or) manage and carry on all or any of the businesses, undertakings, properties, franchises, goodwill, contracts, rights, powers, and privileges held, enjoyed, or carried on by any person, firm, or corporation or by any business, the carrying-on of which will, in the opinion of the Company, promote the development of the Company, or possessed of any property suitable for the development of the Company as the Company may deem advisable, and, in particular, for shares, bonds, debentures, or other securities of the Company and to let and sublet any property, and to sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of the whole or any part of the Company's business, property, and assets of any kind for such consideration as the Company may deem advisable, and, in particular, for shares, bonds, debentures, or other securities of any other company, and to undertake the liabilities of any such person, firm, or corporation:

(i) To take part in the management, supervision, or control of the business or operations of any company or undertaking of which the Company holds any shares, bonds, debentures, or other securities, or of which the Company owns any property, assets, or rights, and for that purpose to appoint and remunerate any managers, accountants, or other experts or agents:

(j) To purchase or otherwise acquire, and to hold, sell, exchange, or otherwise dispose of and deal in the property, real or personal, rights and assets of, and bonds, debentures, debenture stock, shares of all classes, and securities of any form or type issued by any individual, corporation, or company, public or private, incorporated or unincorporated:

(k) To issue paid-up shares, bonds, debentures, or other securities of the Company in payment or part payment for any services rendered or for any work done for the Company or in or towards payment or satisfaction of any debts or liabilities of the Company or any property purchased by the Company:

(l) To guarantee and become surety for the performance of any contract, obligation, or undertaking made or to be made by any person, firm, or corporation whatsoever, and to secure the performance thereof by mortgage or charge on all or any of the property or assets of the Company, including its unpaid or uncalled capital for the time being, or in any other manner whatsoever; provided that nothing herein contained shall confer on the Company the powers of an insurance company within the meaning of the Insurance Act, chapter 197, Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1960.

The liability of the members is, subject to section 76 of the said Act, limited in accordance with section 24 of the said Act.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this fifth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-seven.

TIMBER SALE X96635

SEALED TENDERS will be received by the District Forester at Prince Rupert, B.C., not later than 11 a.m. on the 28th day of February, 1967, for the purchase of Licence X96635, to cut 566,000 cubic feet of fir, cedar, hemlock, and other species on an area situated on Talchako River, Range 3, Coast District.

Two years will be allowed for removal of timber.

As this area is within the Dean Public Sustained-yield Unit (Block II), which is fully committed, this sale will be awarded under the provisions of section 17 (1a) of the Forest Act, which gives the timber-sale applicant certain privileges.

Further particulars may be obtained from the District Forester, Prince Rupert, B.C., or the Forest Ranger, Bella Coola, B.C.
